Ever wonder how witches learn to fly? Wally and Wanda Wallenda retired last year and left their daughter Wendy in charge of the Wallenda Witches Flying School. Now three witches had been missing for several hours. Painfully, she remembered other incidents where she lost witches due to broom malfunction, illegal bat catching, and pure witch arrogance. Will Hope, Gracie, and Purity be found? Will the witches school be closed down by the Federal Witches Aviation Association? Answers and other delights await you inside this clever and witty book that will capture the attention of young and old.
